Summary:

American pianist and vocalist Phil Thompson continues to gain acclaim throughout the music and entertainment industries as a consummate performer of popular favorites from the 1970's through today. As one of the nation's freshest faces to emerge a pop/instrumental crossover, Phil continues his rigorous tour schedule performing across the globe: from the Royal Imperial Palace in Vienna, to the US Open Tennis Tournament in New York, and most recently headlining for two nights in Las Vegas at Mandalay Bay's executive "The Lounge" during their recent UFC Championship event. Phil also recently joined his friends and fellow artists "The Canadian Tenors" on their recent tour stop in Minneapolis.
